Michael E. Kovack, Medina County Auditor was inducted into the Wadsworth Senior Advocate Hall of Fame on November 14th. The induction ceremony was held at the Galaxy Restaurant.

The Wadsworth Senior Advocate Hall of Fame was established to recognize the outstanding accomplishments made by local individuals and organizations and the significant contributions they have made to create a positive difference in the lives of older adults in the Wadsworth community.

Thomas A. Cox was especially honored with the Leatherman Lifetime Achievement Award. Also receiving honors that night were Angela Huston, G. William and Jean Mitchell and the Medina County Senior Services Network.

Auditor Kovack said, "I am honored to be a part of such a dedicated group of individuals. All of us have the same commitment: to make life better for our senior citizens. The Wadsworth Older Adults Foundation is an amazing organization and we are very thankful for its presence in the community."
