

THE TOP DOG

By Kayli Angus

First, My dog's name is Kujo. He is special to me because he's been around my whole life. Kujo is one of my favorite dogs because he's smart, positive, and even sweet. Kujo is blind but he knows his way around anywhere he's smarter than me. Kujo is really old and fuzzy. He's a chihuahua and he's light brown. He's like a guard dog. Every time somebody knocks at the door he barks three times. He's really tiny and has white fur around his nose and eyes. When he goes to eat he stuffs about ten pieces of dog food in his mouth and brings it to the livingroom and spits it out and eats one piece at a time. Whenever he sleeps he snores really light. It's not that loud but sometimes I get annoyed with it. Kujo doesn't wear a collar because when he walks around everyone knows Kujo is ours and they drive by and wave. When he eats he has to guard his food from other dogs. Whenever it's Thanksgiving he gets spoiled a lot and the other dogs get jealous.

This Halloween, he dressed up as a lion and he was adorable. Whenever I turn on a tv show for him he barks at the tv because there's other dogs on it. Kujo is fun to play with because we play tag in the house. Kujo is really old so he can't run that fast so I go a little slow. At bedtime we also sleep together. I put his pj's on and watch a little show then go to bed. Sometimes he has to go to the bathroom so I let him outside for two minutes. When we wake up in the morning I take a shower then give Kujo a bath. He doesn't like it that much. I take runs with him. He gets really jealous when I play with the other dogs but I think he can handle it. Kujo and I like taking pictures. We also make videos on tiktok.

Finally, Why I think he's the top dog is because he's the funniest dog I've ever had. I've had other fun dogs but Kujo is the best. He goes on car rides, runs, walks and I even put him in a baby stroller when I walk him. I mostly love how he's so kind, special, cute, funny, and furry. He's the king of the house because everyone loves Kujo so much and he loves cuddling with everyone. He smells really good too. And I give him treats twenty-four seven. So that's why I think Kujo is the top dog and I hope you do too!
